

CTC Council Meeting Notes

June 18, 2018

- AGENDA
- Police Update: Officer Butler
 - Make sure that as the warmer months approach, be careful out on trails. Especially on Sunday
 - Introduce Brian Howard as new officer. Rookie
- Thanks to everyone participating in CT streetfest cleanup
- Charlene expressed thanks for allowing to participate in streetfest. Look forward to next year
- KP updated on current balance sheet
- Aaron B provided update on SStreetfest.
 - Cincinnati neighborhood games did well
 - Finals are July 28th at Yeatmans' cove. Still opportunities to represent Columbia Tusculum
- Terry Nester, candidate for court of common pleas did not make an appearance.
- Vanessa Smedley, Superintendent of wastewater treatment, discussed odors at little Miami. Increased skimming to 50% sludge instead of 100% sludge. They skimmed ahead of time, just before CTC Streetfest.
 - She said it will be an ongoing problem and that it cannot be stopped completely. She did say complaints were down.
 - Keith described the treatment process
 - Most of odors are from solids processing. Hauling of solid waste is a big contributor
 - He offered a plan tour for anyone who is interested. Contact Keith for more information
 - Call to address odor complaints. 513-557-5979
 - Any further problems would have to go to the County and County Commissioner
 - Diana Kristi is the new interm director. She is willing to come more often if the community requests it.
- Next Meeting is August 20th
